DREAMERS.

"There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream." The old song is right. Lovers are dreamers. They create a special world in which they live immune from the hurts and ills which vex common humanity. In their estimate of household expenses there's no place for a doctor. And very often when the dream dissolves they find that the doctor's bill, the one thing they didn't count on, is now the one thing that's as regular as rent and taxes. And many times it is money wasted. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do for a woman and her womanly ills, practically everything that can be done by any doctor or medicine. It regulates the periods, dries debilitated, cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It makes childbirth easy, and thousands of nursing mothers have testified to its tonic and strength giving properties. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

Mrs. Annie Blacker, of 49 Catherine Street, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicine has done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor. I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I have much better health, and now I have a fine, healthy baby."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DROPPED BY THE DEMOCRATE.

News that the democratic committee of South Carolina had expelled Senator McLaurin from the party and demanded his resignation was conveyed to him yesterday. The Senator was greatly surprised. No intimation of the proposed action had reached him or any of his friends on the committee. The body had assembled to fix the date for the election in the Seventh congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Stokes, and Senator Tillman's plans seem to have been kept remarkably well concealed.

McLaurin declined to make a statement yesterday even to his closest personal and political friends. It is expected that after a consultation with leaders on his side he will issue an announcement of his position. Railing him out of the party will cause the loss of some supporters who were willing to follow him as a democrat. It may gain him others.

The resolution ruling McLaurin out of the party was offered as a substitute for one changing the rules of the party so as to make the candidates in the primary subscribe to an oath to support and advocate, as members of Congress, the principles and doctrines of the democratic party as promulgated in the national and State platforms. There was considerable opposition to this, as members felt the silver and other planks in the national platform were back numbers.

The McLaurin resolution, with which Senator Tillman was familiar, was offered as a substitute, and the senior Senator earnestly supported it. State Senator Lewis Appell, of Clarendon, was the only one to make a struggle for McLaurin. Tillman defied anyone to say McLaurin had cast his vote in the Senate in accordance with the wishes of his people.

"He has voted on important matters with the republicans, since the treaty with Spain was ratified by his vote," said Tillman. "I have had to remain in my seat quietly and see him confer time and again with republicans. Now, we are the engineers in charge of the democratic train, and must guide it safely into the station. We must protect the party from treachery. This year we were told we would have peace and harmony for one summer at least, but peace and harmony won't come when there are sneaks and thieves and traitors going around hiring He-men and distributing gold and buying up newspapers. I am fully aware of what I am saying and I know whereof I speak."

State Senator Appell, who is the proprietor of a McLaurin paper, arose to make a protest.

"I know that you belong to him, heart and soul," said Tillman. He had not aimed at Appell, he said, but thought his remarks must have fitted his case. But the issue is not as to whether it is one of republicanism," continued the Senator, "and republicanism is the most damnable kind. I might have had some respect for McLaurin if he had come out honestly and as a republican."

Tillman met all dissenting remarks, whipped in the wavers, and carried the resolution through with a rush.

McLaurin headquarters have just been opened in Greenville and the action of the executive committee has left his supporters at sea until the junior Senator indicates his course. A month ago McLaurin dared Tillman to have him read out of the party, declaring that if such action were taken he would "split the democratic party wide open in this State."

If he now continues in politics and makes the contest next year this result will almost certainly follow.

The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most all of the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers for their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times."
